

Final Steps of the Dissertation Process

Appointment of Examination Committee

The examination committee gets appointed by the Faculty Council. For this, your supervisor needs to send the following information

- Name of doctoral candidate
- Title of dissertation
- Name of first supervisor
- Name of second supervisor
- Name of head of examination commission to Janine Rothenburger (phd-program@wi.tum.de) at least two weeks before the next meeting of the Faculty Council (please contact Graduate Center for upcoming dates).

Requirements of Doctoral Program of TUM School of Management

The Graduate Center needs to verify if you have fulfilled all requirements of the doctoral program.

Candidates who registered at the doctoral candidacy list before January 1, 2014: Please contact the Graduate Center for the recognition form. Please send the completed and signed form together with your course certificates, proof of publications, talks and international experience (if applicable) – in one pdf file – to the Graduate Center at least three months before you would like to hand in your dissertation.

Candidates who registered at doctoral candidacy list after January 1, 2014: Please upload the course certificates and proofs of publication, talks and international experience (if applicable) in DocGS continually during your doctoral studies or at least three month before you would like to hand in your dissertation. The courses are recognized in DocGS (please contact the Graduate Center beforehand in case you want to participate any courses that are not offered by the Graduate Center of TUM School of Management).

Graduate School Certificate or Transcript of Records

All members of the Graduate Center (voluntary membership for candidates who registered at doctoral candidacy list before January 1, 2014) receive a GS Certificate and Transcript of Records from the Graduate Center. The certificate will be issued once the date of the rigorosum is set.

Preparations for Handing in your Dissertation

All doctoral candidates need to apply in DocGS for handing in their dissertation. For questions on the application process, please have a look at the DocGS website, the website of the Graduate School or contact the Graduate Center.

Once you have filled out the application form and have uploaded all documents (including dissertation) the Graduate Center has to confirm that you have completed all requirements of the doctoral program and submit information on your membership status.

Please mind that this process may take a few days!

Handing in your Dissertation

Please print out the application form for handing in your dissertation (DocGS) and make an appointment at the Doctoral Office (Promotionsamt, contact: Ms Stinzel, stinzel@tum.de, +49 89 289 22248) to hand in the printed application form (DocGS), various additional documents and the printed copies of your dissertation.

Assessment of Dissertation

Your dissertation is sent to your supervisors and they issue their reports. The supervisor reports should be submitted no later than within three months.

Circulation Procedure

Once your supervisor reports have been submitted and least as passed, your dissertation will be sent automatically to our faculty for decision (circulation procedure). The circulation procedure takes place from the 1st-15th calendar day of each month.

Disputatio

Once your dissertation has been accepted by the faculty, the members of the examination committee will arrange a date for the oral doctoral examination (disputatio). The head of the examination committee informs the members of the examination committee, the faculty and the doctoral candidate about date, time and location.

Publication of the dissertation

Once you have passed the rigorosum you need to publish your dissertation. The University Library offers several options: <https://www.ub.tum.de/en/publishing-dissertation>

Doctoral Diploma

Once you have published your dissertation your doctoral diploma will be issued. You can pick it up at the Graduation Ceremony of our faculty.

Congratulations!
