Recognition of courses, attended at a German University before starting and during your studies at TUM School of Management

How to find the responsible chair:

First, have a look for the relevant module in the module handbook (under course contents/curriculum support in your TUMonline Account) and find the person responsible for the module, as shown below:

Next, check our website (www.wi.tum.de) or do a Google search to find out which Chair this person belongs to. Then consult the website or Office Management of the Chair to find out who you should submit your application to. Please do not submit your application directly to the Professor or lecturer unless you are explicitly told that they are the person responsible.

Please note: As a rule, the approved recognition will be sent to us by the chair via internal post. Insofar as all requirements concerning examination and matriculation law are met, we will enter the recognition in TUMonline. Please understand that this may take some time. Thank you for your understanding and patience!
