We are currently working on a change in the statutes that govern the entrance requirements of this program. Once in force, this change would require a GMAT score as part of the application process. The modifications in the statutes are subject to deliberation by several committees as part of the normal process. The change will likely take effect for those applying for intake in Winter Semester 2022/23.

This proposal has not yet completed its rounds through the process. We offer this information in the spirit of transparency; no further details are available at this time. We will provide updates on the situation on our website as soon as we have more information.

At this point we can only published the requirements and the details of the assessment process that were valid for applications until the winter semester 2021/2022.

1.1. Entrance Requirements

To be eligible to apply for the Master in Consumer Science program, applicants must:

(a) hold a Bachelor’s degree or equivalent (at least 140 ECTS at the time of application) in management, economics, or social sciences (e.g. sociology, psychology, communication sciences or equivalent) and,
(b) have a minimum of 15 ECTS in empirical research methods, statistics, quantitative methods or math.

Please note that under no circumstances conditional admission will be given, in case an applicant does not meet the Entrance Requirements at the time of application!

If your application fulfills all entrance requirements from 1.1., we will start with the first stage of the assessment procedure.

1.2. Stage 1: Previous academic background + GPA + GMAT (optional)

If an application fulfills the entrance requirements, 10 points will be immediately granted for the min. 15 ECTS in empirical research methods, statistics, quantitative methods, or math. Additionally, 30 points will be granted for the experience gained in scientific writing in the context of a bachelor thesis, a project, a scientific paper, or a comparable paper; modules from the field of business administration / management or in the field of social / communication sciences; and modules from the field of economics or in the field of consumer behavior.

As long as the course has been passed, they can be considered for the assessment. The respective grade is irrelevant for the evaluation of the core module groups. If the application does not have the minimum number of credits stipulated for each category, zero points will be given in that specific field.

Alternatively, we consider a Ranking Certificate from your university, if it can award you with more points than through your grade: A maximum of 10 points is allocated to the ranking position of the degree.

We can only recognize ranking certificates if they correspond in form and content to TUM standards. The ranking certificate must contain a grading table of all students that considers your GPA and compares it to the performance of all other students in your branch. The ranking should be an official university document attached to the transcript of records and not a document issued by an individual at the university on request from the applicant.

The points from the core modules and your final grade (or ranking certificate) will be combined. Having a GMAT is beneficial for you, but it is not a requirement to enroll in this program. With a score equal to or over 600 you will receive 10 points during the assessment. If you decide to submit a GMAT please be sure you give the Technical University of Munich the right to verify it online.

The result of stage 1 either leads to:
- a rejection: if the application only reaches 38 points or less
- a direct admission: if the application reaches 50 points or more
- to the evaluation of the essay in stage 2 of the assessment procedure: if the application reaches between 39 and 49 points.

The essay is a mandatory document for the application, all applicants must upload it in TUMonline, even if they are sure of obtaining admission in stage 1.

1.3. Stage 2: Points from Stage 1 (without GMAT) + Essay

In case the Essay is relevant for the final assessment, it will be evaluated based on the following criteria, the maximum point score for the essay is 40 points:

- Ability of scientific-logical reasoning (max. 20 points)
- Classification of economic-technical facts (max. 10 points)
- English-language expressiveness (max. 10 points)

The final result in stage 2 consists of the combined points from stage 1 (GMAT not being considered in stage 2) and the total points achieved in the evaluation of the Essay. If the combined total is 69 points or more, the application will be accepted (admission), if the total point score is 68 points or less, the application will be rejected.

Please refer here for more information regarding the essay.
