

German language requirements

➤ What is the deadline?

According to paragraph 37 of the qualifying examination and study regulations all students need to demonstrate basic knowledge of German. Proof of knowledge in German has to be demonstrated until the end of the second semester.

➤ Who has to fulfill the German language requirements?

Students who got the deferred condition “Requirement Proof of Proficiency in German” in their admission letter.

➤ Which proficiency in German is required?

In order to meet the German language requirements a proficiency in German of at least level A1 is needed.

➤ How can I prove my German language skills?

There are various possibilities to demonstrate the German language skills:

- Passing of a module taught in German at TUM
- Certificate of a language course (at least A1) from TUM or any other institution
- German as part of your higher education entrance qualification (Abitur, A-level; High school diploma, etc.)
- Bachelor degree taught in German
- Exchange semester in Germany and passing a module taught in German
- Language certificate (e.g. Goethe-Zertifikat, TestDaF)

Placement Tests are not accepted as proof of your German proficiency.

➤ How should I submit my proof of proficiency in German?

Fill out the following form: “APPLICATION of RECOGNITION - Requirement: Proof of Proficiency in German” which you can find in the download section of the Homepage of the TUM School of Management (<https://www.wi.tum.de/downloads/>).

Send the form including your proof of Proficiency in German to npv_master@wi.tum.de (students at Campus Munich) or studentcounseling_heilbronn@wi.tum.de (students at Campus Heilbronn).

Questions? Contact:

For office hours, see <http://www.wi.tum.de/contact/#graduate-programs>

Campus Munich

Grades and Examinations Office

npv_master@wi.tum.de

Academic Counseling

studentcounseling_master@wi.tum.de

Campus Heilbronn

Grades and Examinations Office &
Academic Counseling

studentcounseling_heilbronn@wi.tum.de